Spiritual Thirst

Read: Isaiah 55:1-11

The longing, life-and-death nature of thirst makes it a perfect descriptor for our need of God. There is Spirit-driven desperation in those who thirst to find the water of life. Even though the path to this spring is often filled with twists and turns and pitfalls, sovereign love is strong.

That was certainly the case with Yassin, a man in Morocco who was thirsting for something—or Someone—outside of the only religion he had ever known, Islam. In his search, Yassin pirated a copy of the Hollywood film Son of God to try to learn who Jesus was. That led him to the Roman Catholic church in his city, but he never got past the door because the guards ran him off. A person leaving Islam isn't something to be encouraged because it could mean trouble.

And so, this thirsty man went on searching until he stumbled onto a Christian radio broadcast, where he got patient, biblical answers to his questions. He then found a church. He wasn't cast out—instead, he was welcomed and spent many hours with a pastor, who is himself a trophy of grace from Islam. Together, they examined the Scriptures and the claims of Christ on this wanderer's life. At last, Yassin tasted for the first time the cold, refreshing, life-giving good news of the gospel and believed.

When someone in Morocco comes out of the prison house of Islam, where the darkness is deep and the bars are strong and the cost of escaping is great, it can only be a work of God. So rejoice and join in the joy in heaven over Yassin, our newborn brother, and for all those who are being gathered from across all nations. For God's life-giving invitation continues to reach the ends of the earth: "Come, everyone who thirsts" (Isa. 55:1).

Pray for the World

Father, we pray for our brethren in the Anglican Communion, for each one to take personal responsibility for their relationship with You, and seek Your face daily. We pray for the faithful and courageous proclamation of Your Word in all parts of our Communion, for the Holy Spirit to both guide us into all Your truth, but also to convict us of our sinful erroneous ways. We pray against those in authority who are leading Your people astray, to repent and turn back to You. We pray that we be not swayed by the world, the flesh and the devil to walk down the broad path and be led away from You.

Pray for Singapore

Father, we pray for the spiritual and physical growth of our Diocese. Help us be confident in our identity as Anglicans, and return to a greater sensitivity to and move of the Holy Spirit in all our gatherings. We pray for the Fruit and Gifts of the Holy Spirit to flourish in our Diocese. We pray for greater evangelistic and missions zeal, for our parishes to faithfully and boldly proclaim the good news of Your love and mercy to all in our nation and beyond.

Pray for SACC

Father, we give thanks for our Parish, praying for the ongoing close relationship and collaboration between the EC and CC. Bless our leaders with wisdom and grace, so to work and support each other, leading both congregations to grow and minister together in harmony.

We pray this week:

1. For our brothers and sisters getting Confirmed, that each continues to grow in knowledge, love and personal relationship with You; daily refreshed by You, Holy Spirit, to grow in love and grace.
2. For our year-end vacations and travels, for journey mercies, and a great time of refreshment and bonding with family and friends.
3. Giving thanks for hearing our prayers for the healing and health of our brothers and sisters. We continue to pray for their strengthening and full recovery.
4. Lifting up to You our ongoing outreach to family and friends, praying for Your Spirit's conviction to befall them, and there soon turning to You in surrender and faith.

Collect – 4th Sunday Before Advent

Almighty and eternal God, you have kindled the flame of love in the hearts of the saints: grant to us the same faith and power of love, that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may be sustained by their example and fellowship; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

SACC Executive Officer

Let us warmly welcome our new Executive Officer, Ms Renee Zhang Xin.
