A God-Centered Life

Read: Psalm 112:1-10

People used to think that the sun circled the earth every day and that the earth was the center of the universe. Then a guy named Copernicus came along with his theory that the Sun was the center of our solar system and the earth rotated on it's axis. For centuries most everyone had it all wrong.

When people began to embrace Copernicus' ideas nothing actually changed. Our earth did the same thing it had always done. The sun still "rose" and "set" the same way it always had from our perspective. Yet when we embraced Copernicus' ideas everything changed. The more people recognized that the sun was the center of our solar system, the more they were able to chart the heavens and make other discoveries into the world of astronomy!

The same things happens in our lives when we come into a right relationship with God. It's like a Copernican revolution. God is still God, He does what He has always done. He has always been at the center of everything, yet when we begin to live God-centered lives instead of self centered lives everything changes for us!

Psalm 112 like Psalm 111 is written as an acrostic of the Hebrew Alphabet. Each line starts with a different letter like A, B, C, D, E, and so forth. The big idea is that we become like the things we worship. If we worship God and He is the center of our universe we will reflect back His goodness in our lives. This psalms basically says blessed is the man who is God-centered from A to Z and every way in between.

Pray for the World

Lord, bring together and keep all families in perfect unity of love and mutual support. Instill in each member the spirit of understanding and affection for each other. Keep quarrels and bitterness far from them, and for their occasional failures instill forgiveness and peace. May the mutual love and affection of parents set a good example. Instill in children self-respect that they may respect others and grow in mature independence. May the mutual affection and respect of families be a sign of Christian life here and hereafter.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, we thank you for the gift of family. We are grateful for the love and support we find in one another. May we never take our family for granted and always cherish the moments we have together. We seek your wisdom and guidance as we make decisions that affect our family. Help us to make choices that honour you and are in the best interest of our loved ones. We pray for the safety and protection of our family members. Keep us safe from harm and lead us in the paths of righteousness. Shield us from any danger and guide us through life's challenges.

Pray for SACC

Lord, we pray for the generations of our family, past, present, and future. May the legacy of faith and love be carried forward, and may our family always be a source of your light in the world.

This week:

1. We entrust our children to your care. Watch over them, protect them, and guide them in their growth and development. May they grow in faith and wisdom.
2. Grant our family the peace that surpasses all understanding. Help us to resolve conflicts with love and respect, and may our home be a place of harmony and serenity.
3. Grant us the strength to face life's challenges together as a family. Let us lean on one another and find courage and resilience in times of trial.
4. We lift up any family members who are going through difficult times, whether it be illness, emotional pain, or other challenges. We ask for your healing touch and comfort to be upon them.

Collect – 18th Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Blessings Graduands

We rejoice with our brother and sisters as they complete their time at Tung Ling Bible School this past week:

SERMON NOTES

Speaker: Rev Nicholas Choo
Topic : The Blessed Life
Text : Psalm 112:1-10

INTRODUCTION

Psalm 112 picks up from Psalm 111, which focuses on the good character of God. Psalm 112 zeroes in on the kind of person the Lord honours and blesses. It answers two questions: (1) “Who is a Happy or Blessed Person?” And (2) “How does the Lord respect and show great admiration to the Righteous?”

COMMITMENTS

Three keys to a blessed and happy life:

- 1 The Character of a Happy and Blessed Life (vv1-3)
- 2 The Continuation of a Happy and Blessed Life (vv4-7)
- 3 The Confidence of a Happy and Blessed Life (vv8—9)

CONCLUSION

Psalm 112:10 ends with a contrast. It compares the results of a blessed and a bane life. The blessed person reaps ultimate rewards. The bane person reaps ultimate ruins.

Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations,
Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.
